According to data released by Turkstat, exports increased by 7.4% yoy to 22.9 billion USD in October, while imports rose by 0.6% yoy to 29.4 billion USD. In this period, foreign trade deficit contracted by 17.5% yoy to 6.5 billion USD. Current account posted a surplus of 186 million USD in October, below market expectations. According to the Reuters survey, current account surplus was expected to be 750 million USD in this period. The relatively low level of foreign trade deficit and the ongoing favorable course in passenger transportation and tourisim revenues were behind the current account surplus. In October, net gold imports continued to decline and became 1.2 billion USD, the lowest level of the last 6 months, while the current account surplus excluding gold and energy was realized as 5.1 billion USD. Thus, current account deficit, which widened by 4.2% yoy to 40.7 billion USD in January-October period, declined to 50.7 billion USD according to 12-month cumulative figures.

Moderate course in foreign direct investments...

In October, real estate investments remained weak, but net foreign direct investments recorded an inflow of 638 million USD thanks to capital investments. Thus, inflow from foreign direct investments recorded the highest level of the last 6 months. In January-October period, net foreign direct investments decreased by 60% yoy to 2.9 billion USD.

In this period, non-residents' stock market portfolio decreased by 423 million USD, while their net purchases in debt securities market continued with 336 million USD. Reserve assets and net errors and omissions...

Ralance of Payments

In October, reserve assets increased by 247 million USD, recording the lowest increase in the last 5 months. Thus, the total decline in reserve assets since the year-end was realized as 10.7 billion USD. Net errors and omissions recorded a capital outflow of 2.7 billion USD in October and 8.1 billion USD in the first 10 months of the year.

Expectations...

In October, current account continued to post a surplus in line with the favourable course in foreign trade balance and services revenues. According to the preliminary data released by the Ministry of Trade, exports increased by 5.2% yoy while imports declined by 5.6% yoy in November. Thus, foreign trade deficit narrowed by 32.6% yoy in this period. Although economic activity in Türkiye's export markets remains weak, export growth has outpaced the rise in imports in recent months. The decrease in the barrel price of Brent oil due to concerns over global demand despite the supply cut decisions was also influential in this development. In the upcoming period, the course of oil prices, gold imports and domestic demand will continue to be closely monitored in terms of the current account balance outlook.
